

Evangelical Studies Program

Conference on Evangelicals and Religious Freedom

Wednesday 6 – Friday 8 October 2021

Wednesday 6 October

- 8.00 Introductory Session
- 8.15 Nicholas Miller (Andrews University), 'Evangelicals in Colonial America, a Second Magna Carta, and Religious Freedom'
- 9.15 Break
- 9.30 John Coffey (University of Leicester), 'British Evangelicals, Colonial Subjects and Religious Liberty in the Age of Wilberforce'
- 10.30 Break
- 10.45 Short Papers (each followed by separate Q. & A.):
Jacob P. Salley (University of Leicester), 'Religious Freedom amidst Revolution: Robert Hall Jr, the Enlightenment, and the Dissenting Interest in Late Eighteenth-Century England'
Jeffrey McDonald (Sioux Falls Seminary and Pastor of Avery Presbyterian Church, Bellevue, Nebraska), 'William Jennings Bryan and Religious Freedom'
- 12.00

Thursday 7 October

- 8.00 Mary Heimann (Cardiff University), 'Evangelicals under Communist Regimes in Post-War East-Central Europe'
- 9.00 Break
- 9.15 Wai Luen Kwok (Hong Kong Baptist University), 'An Open Door that No One Can Shut: Evangelicals, Repression and Response in China, 1949-1982'
- 10.15 Break
- 10.30 Short Papers (each followed by separate Q. & A.):
Todd Still (Truett Seminary, Baylor University), 'George W. Truett and Religious Liberty'
John Maiden (The Open University, U.K.), 'Evangelical Concern with Global Catholic Persecution in the Twentieth Century'
- 11.45 General Discussion
- 12.00

Friday 8 October

- 8.00 Worship (Truett Seminary with homily by Matt Snowden, Pastor of First Baptist Church, Waco)
- 8.20 Melani McAlister (George Washington University), 'U.S. Evangelicals and the Politics of Religious Freedom after the Cold War'
- 9.20 Break
- 9.35 Barry Hankins (Baylor University), 'Evangelicals and Religious Liberty in the Era of Donald J. Trump'
- 10.35 Break
- 10.50 Todd Thompson (Biola University), 'Norman Anderson, Islam and Religious Freedom in Nigeria'
- 11.50 Concluding Session
- 12.00